Native Hawaiian Development Program Community Development Grants

The purpose of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands' (DHHL) Native Hawaiian Development Program (NHDP) is to improve the general welfare and conditions of native Hawaiians through educational, economic, political, social, cultural, and other programs. For the fiscal biennium from July 1, 2007 to June 30, 2009, the NHDP is designed to achieve this purpose by increasing the self-sufficiency and self-determination of native Hawaiian individuals and native Hawaiian communities so that they can manage and direct Hawaiian home lands resources and assets. The Hawaiian Homes Commission envisions homestead residents and applicants taking part in land use planning, defining the needs and opportunities in their communities, and implementing beneficiary programs.

The community development grants and technical assistance are offered to beneficiary organizations (defined as a Hawaiian home lands homestead community or applicant organizations) to provide as an support for homestead applicants and lessees to take part in the planning of homestead communities, the various uses of homestead land, and the management of homestead assets. These organizations need to have certain skills and resources to participate in these activities. It is important to build the leadership and management capacity within beneficiary organizations. Programs are in place to assist them with setting and reaching goals specific to their membership needs.

This application kit contains all the information and forms necessary to apply for a grant under this program.

Funding Priorities

This funding cycle, the community development grants are specifically targeted at beneficiary organizations and community-driving projects. DHHL is offering three types of grants: (1) capacity-building grants; (2) project implementation grants; and (3) regional plan priority project grants.

Capacity-building grants are intended to help these beneficiary organizations improve their ability to serve applicants and homestead residents. Some of the activities that could be funded by a capacity-building grant are board training, strategic planning, membership drives, community visioning, obtaining tax-exempt status, beneficiary outreach, or conducting fundraising activities.

Project implementation grants are for community-driven projects that will improve the living standards in distinct native communities. These grants are intended to help beneficiary organizations carry out their plans to help applicants become lessees, improve homestead areas and facilities, increase the use of homestead land, or implement a community vision. Examples of the activities that might be funded by a project implementation grant are homeownership preparation classes, low-cost housing demonstration projects, agricultural demonstration projects, design and/or construction of community facilities, and community-based economic development projects.

Regional plan priority project grants are for community-driven priority projects identified in DHHL's Regional Plans approved by the Hawaiian Homes Commission (HHC). Examples of the activities that might be funded by the regional plan priority project grants are La'i'opua Community Center in Kealakehe, Hawaii, the Community Technology, Telehealth and Employment Center in Waimanalo, Oahu; and Anahola Stream Restoration Project on Kauai.

Eligibility Requirements

The capacity-building and project implementation grants are only available to beneficiary organizations. All projects must be community-based and designed to assist DHHL applicants or a homestead community. DHHL general eligibility requirement for a beneficiary organization is that the formation of the organization is a beneficiary initiative and that the goals and mission of your organization are targeted towards the beneficiaries of the Hawaiian Home Lands Trust. Organizations applying for grants must be registered with the state as a non-profit and comply with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requirements for tax-exemption when applicable. DHHL staff can provide more information on the requirement for tax-exemption. Beneficiary organizations without 501 (c) 3, tax-exempt statuses are eligible for capacity-building grants, provided they are registered with the state Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs as a non-profit organization. Grantees must maintain a status of "Good Standing" with DHHL. (See the Compliance Section of this application) Grantees must have tax-exempt status or a fiscal sponsor to receive an implementation grant. Grants are not awarded to individuals.

Regional Plan Priority Project Grants are available to beneficiary organizations eligible for DHHL capacity-building or project implementation grants, private non-profit organizations or public agencies.

Funding

Grant funds are provided from the Native Hawaiian Rehabilitation Fund (NHRF). The NHRF funds come from DHHL's 30% share of the revenues from state sugarcane leases and water licenses paid to the state. NHRF monies must be used solely for the benefit of native Hawaiians. A native Hawaiian is defined as a person with at least fifty percent Hawaiian blood. The Hawaiian Homes Commission (HHC) has appropriated approximately $500,000 for competitive grant awards for the 2007-2008 fiscal year from NHRF and is distributed as follows:

- $50,000 for the capacity-building grants;
- $200,000 for the project implementation grants; and
- $250,000 for the regional plan priority project grants.

The maximum amount of a capacity-building grant is $5,000. There is no maximum award limit for project implementation and regional plan priority project grants.

Decision-making Process

The Capacity-Building proposals are reviewed by DHHL staff. DHHL shall look at the proposed project's goals, work plan, and potential benefit to the native Hawaiian community and considers the technical aspects of the project and its relevance to DHHL's goals and programs. Upon completion of the review process, DHHL then submit their comments and recommendations to the HHC Chairman with ratification by the HHC for funding. Organizations that are not approved for funding are provided with an explanation of why funding was not approved and a summary of the reviewers' comments.

The Project Implementation proposals are reviewed by DHHL staff and a Grant Review Advisory Committee (GRAC). The GRAC is composed of people from across the state. Some of the members are homesteaders, most are Hawaiian. The DHHL staff considers the technical aspects of the project and its relevance to DHHL's goals and programs, then submit their comments and recommendations to the GRAC. The GRAC looks at the proposed project's goals, work plan, and potential benefit to the native Hawaiian community. The GRAC makes its recommendation for funding to the Hawaiian Homes Commission. The HHC votes on which proposals to fund at a regularly scheduled Commission meeting. The organizations that are awarded funding enter into a Grant Agreement spelling out all the requirements and conditions of the grant award. Grant Application Instructions

The DHHL grant application consists of three parts: (1) the application coversheet; (2) the proposal request; and (3) the required forms and attachments. This application packet contains all of the instructions and required forms for a complete grant application. All grant applications must be submitted on the forms provided in this packet. Use the grant application checklist found at the end of this packet to organize your application package.

The Application Coversheet: The application coversheet provides basic contact information for your organization, the type of grant you are requesting and the amount of money you are requesting. The coversheet must be signed by the person your board has authorized to act on your behalf. For most organizations, this is the president of the board or the executive director if you have one. The application cover sheet must be the very first page of your grant application package.

The Proposal Request: The proposal request section is the main part of your proposal. This is the section that the reviewers will rely on to understand your project and to decide whether to recommend funding for your project. This section should be detailed and easy to understand.

Organizations may apply for a capacity-building grant, project implementation grant or regional plan priority project grant. Each type of grant has its own application form. If you have any questions about what type of grant your project fits under, you should call the DHHL grants specialist. The application forms explain what your proposal should cover. The application form for capacity-building grants provides space for you to write, however, you are not limited to the amount of space provided.

A budget information form is included in this packet. You must use this form to present your budget request. This form lists the total amount of all your project costs (i.e. total personnel, total, travel, total supplies, etc.) In addition, you must provide a detailed explanation of how you arrived at each cost item. For example, if you are requesting funds to hire staff, you will put the total amount you are requesting on the personnel line of the budget information form. On the additional budget information sheet, you should list the position title, amount of time, and wage for each position. For an item like air travel, you will list the total of your travel costs on the travel line of the budget information form. On the additional information sheet, you must provide the number of flights and the roundtrip fare that the total is based on.

The budget information sheet has blank lines for you to list costs that do not fall under the categories already listed on the form.

Required Forms and Attachments: This packet includes three assurances that must be signed and included in your grant application package – Assurance of Service to Native Hawaiians, Assurance of Acknowledgement of Support, and Assurance of Dedicated Matching Funds and In-Kind Services. In addition to these forms, you must also include copies of the following items:

- Articles of Incorporation with the stamp showing they were filed with the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs;
- IRS letter of determination giving you tax-exempt status (for implementation grants only), or a letter from your fiscal sponsor with their IRS letter of determination;
- List of board members; and
- Board resolution written on your letterhead that states who the board has authorized to sign documents on behalf of your organization. The board secretary must sign this resolution. A sample resolution is included in this packet.

You may also submit letters of support and any material that you think will help the reviewers understand what you are proposing to do.

Packaging Your Application: Your proposal package should be printed on 8½ x 11 inch white paper. All pages should be numbered and printed on one side only. The entire package should be stapled at the top left corner. You do not need to provide any special binding, cover, or dividers for the sections. The sections should be in the order described above with the application cover sheet on the top. Be sure to keep a copy of your entire application package for your records.

Submitting Your Application: You only need to submit one, original copy of your application package. Your application must either be postmarked or hand delivered to DHHL's main office on Oahu by the due date. Applications will not be accepted at the District Offices.

ASSURANCE OF SERVICE TO NATIVE HAWAIIANS

Instructions: Insert organization's name in the blank. Form must be signed by authorizing agent of organization.

Article XII, Section 1 of the Hawaii State Constitution, created the Native Hawaiian Rehabilitation Fund (NHRF), whose funds are derived from thirty percent of receipts derived from state land used for sugarcane cultivation and water. The State Constitution further states:

"The department shall use this money solely for the rehabilitation of native Hawaiians which shall include, but not be limited to, the educational, economic, political, social, and cultural processes by which the general welfare and conditions of native Hawaiians are thereby improved and perpetuated."

NHRF is codified in the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act of 1920, as amended, under Section 213.

It is therefore incumbent upon organizations and individuals who receive support from revenues from NHRF through grants from the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands (DHHL) to prove that the beneficiaries of any proposed service, program, or activity are native Hawaiians.

Beneficiaries of funding under an award of NHRF must trace and conclusively prove that they are at least 50% Hawaiian ancestry. DHHL must rely on documented evidence that meets eligibility requirements and reduces the possibility of error. In many cases, submitting birth certificates for the beneficiaries, the beneficiary's parents and grandparents will provide sufficient proof that the beneficiary of the services under an award from DHHL has at least 50% Hawaiian ancestry. The burden of proof rests on the awardee and beneficiary of funding.

This is to certify that, when requested,	wil
provide genealogies or other appropriate proof of at least 50 any project operating with the support of NHRF.	9% Hawaiian ancestry, for the beneficiaries of
